

BAKARS

It is with great saddness of the families of BROCK P. BAKARS, and those left with the life of one so kind, share his passion for community. We will remember him with the love in their hearts.

Brock will be remembered by his parents and his brothers. He was their greatest fan and protector. He believed in the values of working and playing together in life, in honor of life. He was the kindling of Brock, always a team of one.

Brock was a man who was respected and was loved by many. He was a leader who loved to be loved. He was known within his community as a playful, generous young man. He would always try to be the best at what he did.
